CELEBRATE THE CHERRY BLOSSOMS

Spring is cherry blossom season on the University of Washington campus, attracting thousands of visitors to the neighborhood each year! Come and enjoy a variety of flowering trees on and off campus, including the more than 85-year-old spectacular Yoshino cherry trees that line the UW Quad, and celebrate this time-honored Seattle tradition.

EXPLORE THE U DISTRICT

With hundreds of restaurants and shops, there is always something new to discover in Seattle's University District. This season, make your way to local businesses offering cherry and blossom-flavored menu specials, featured retail, and so much more!
